

Writing a conclusion for a comparison essay:

- Include the name of each text in full and the name of the authors of each text.
- Include your three main comparisons, focussing on the conclusions you arrived at, at the end of each paragraph.
- Finish with your contention – it may be a bit broader and more insightful now than how you framed it in your intro (or it may not be);

The overall similarity and/or difference between the texts framed as the key idea in relation to the essay topic.

- Do the happy dance.
- Go '&%$#' I forgot to edit.
- GO BACK AND EDIT.
- Do the happy dance again, perhaps more subdued, but with deeper conviction.