

Class 11 Main Lesson: Parzival – Day 5 - Wednesday

1. Please say the special verse.
2. Personal Reflections (in the back of your book, dated) – remember to elaborate where possible:
  - I. What is the greatest gift you have ever received? Why?
  - II. Describe the experience of asking someone:
“what is the cause of suffering in your life?”

How did they respond? (you don’t have to go into specifics if it’s personal)
What did you learn... ?
3. Notes from yesterday: take some brief notes to help you re-tell later in the week. If you’re unsure – move on.
  - After leaving his new wife, describe how Parzival is/what he does:
  - What does his horse do?
  - In what condition is the land?
  - What happens with the fisherman? Who is he?
  - What is the castle like?
  - What is the mood like in the castle?
  - How do they treat Parzival?
  - What happens at dinner? What does Parzival witness? What does Parzival do / not do?
  - His dreams?
  - How is the castle when he awakes?; and:
  - What might the voice that calls out have means, when it accuses Parzival:
“You who could have spoken the question which would have brought an end to all sorrow, but did not!” ?
4. In your Main Lesson Book – Start a new page , without a title – but containing your title: that is, your own personal motto: a piece of advice to guide you through the years.

Take up a page/most of a page with your personal motto written in large, aesthetically pleasing letters and presented in a way that has meaning to you.

As you finish, why not listen to:

5. LISTEN: to The Outcast (part two): a short part today:

6. Personal Reflection Tasks for Tomorrow
  - Thinking: Think of, and on, a time you were really jealous. Why were you so jealous?

- Doing: Ask a parent or adult figure in your life:
  - a) what do you (really) want from life?
  - b) what are you working on in yourself, at the moment?

- Ask yourself: what are you working on in yourself, at the moment... anything?
